Re: 2010 NOHA Under 17 Camp

---

The Northern Ontario Hockey Association (NOHA) held its 28th annual Under 17 Program of Excellence Camp in Temiskaming Shores this past weekend. The intense three-day camp featured 78 players born in 1994 from the NOHA territory.

The purpose of the camp is to select 12 players (one goaltender, four defencemen and seven forwards) from the NOHA Camp to attend the Ontario Provincial Camp in Oshawa from July 6-10, 2010. In Oshawa, 84 of the province's best 16-year-old players will be put through their paces in order to select the 20 players that will compete as Team Ontario at the 2011 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Winnipeg, Manitoba in December.

The following players have advanced from the NOHA Camp to the Ontario Provincial Camp:

Davis Boyer – Thessalon
Taylor Dupuis – New Liskeard
Maxim Lamontagne – Hearst
Brandon Plourde – Kapuskasing
Michael Rouleau – Sudbury
Brody Silk – Iroquois Falls

Jordan Delaurier – Iroquois Falls
Brandon Jones – Sudbury
Drew Luciani – Sault Ste. Marie
Peter Poulin-Roy – Sudbury
Kaden Ruest – Chelmsford
Dylan Staples – Callander

For further information, please contact Jason Marchand at (705) 474-8851 or by e-mail at jmarchand@noha.on.ca. In addition, if you would like a photo of the selected players, please do not hesitate to contact me and I will send you one immediately.

Yours truly,

Jason Marchand
